

Putnam Valley, NY

Exquisite stone Arts and Crafts home on 20 very private acres. This 1932 residence was originally a hunting lodge owned by the Herald Tribune. Lovingly restored with 4 bedrooms, 4 baths (2 full, 2 half), great room with cathedral ceilings and floor to ceiling stone fireplace, gourmet eat-in kitchen, master bedroom suite with balcony, and separate stone building with finished great room. The property includes a pristine rambling creek with spring pool and waterfall, stone walls, sauna by the creek and stone patio.
